A FEW WITTY PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM HERE AND THERE.

Athletics at Greenpoint.

looka! Roma—Putta ze stove on too, Pietro.

Looking to the Future. [From the Fliegende Blatter.]
Little Fritz-Here, paps, is my first writingbook. Take good care of it, for when I get to be a famous man you may be able to sell it for lots of money.

Perfumed Eggs. [From the Chicago Herald.]

At the breakfast table. ' Alfred, I see that that a French cook in New York has devised a new dish—perfumed eggs."
Alfred—Perfumed eggs! That's nothing new.
We've had 'em ourselves. How are these? Not perfumed, I hope.

(From the Burlington Free Press.) Bloodgood-I understand that the Hon. Blow-gun was toasted at the banquet last evening? Squeers—Yes, so was I. Never got into such boastly hot place in my life. Murder Will Out.

Tonsted.

[From the Philadelphia Record.] Ministerial Friend (on a visit)—I wonder what makes your mamma so happy to-day? She is singing around all over the house.

Little Neil—I dess she's thought of somfin' to scold papa about when he comes home. She Was Not Afraid. [From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.] Mamma—Are you not afraid, Clara. that after marriage George will critically compare your cakes and pies with those which his mother used o make?

Clara-Not in the least. He dare not, George's mother and I both attend the same cooking school.

An Impudent Question.

[From the Boston Transcript.]
Cooked apple pomace has been fed to swine with excellent results. The bucolic paper which makes this announcement very innocently asks: "Have any of our readers tested it in this direc-tion?" The editor of that paper will get him-self dishiked if he asks many more such ques-tions as this.

Knowledge Is Power, but It's Not Money.
[From L(fs.)] Miss Penelope Peachblow-Who is that?

Mr. Jonathan Trump-Oh, that's Prof. Digby, who knows everything. He's considered one of the most profound scholars in America. Miss Penelope Peachblow—Well, why doesn't he have his hair cut? Mr. Jonathau Trump—He can't afford it.

Graudma in a Box.

(From Barper's Baser.)
Bobby (who is visiting his kind old grandmother)-I wouldn't mind eatin' some of that nice hot bread, grandma. Grandma—Well, Bobby, you can have all you want of it. Bobby —Yes, but ma won't let me est hot bread. Grandma (testing the lad's moral strougth)— She won't know anything about it. Bobby—All right, grandma, just give me a picco, please.

[From the Chicago Herald.]

Miss Grrige-Your friend, Miss Hightone, is very musical, I hear,

Mr. Perkins-Yes. She lives in quite a musi-"So I should judge. I've noticed over their front door that she lives in a 'B Flat."

Appropriate Literature for Him.

(Prom the Chicago Iribune 1 Newsboy-Morning paper, sir 7 All about Harrison's appointments! Facetions Stranger (winking at bystanders)-Harrison-Harrison? That's the boy preacher, inn't it? Has he any appointments for meetings in this neighborhood?

Newsboy—Not that Harrison—President Harrison, sir. All about—

Facetious Stranger (in tone of surprise)—
What! Do you mean to tell me that the President is a man named Harrison? When was he elected?

elected?
Newsboy (calling to chum in next block)—Dick,
run an' get a last year's paper of some kind.
Here's a man from Philadelphia!

THE FUNNY SIDE OF LIFE. GIVE NEW BLOOD A SHOW.

REASONS FOR FIXING THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Difference of Opinion as to the Merits of the Two McCarthys-Colored Fighters Not Without Grit. Jack McAuliffe and His Mother-A Young Man of Trinldad Who Says He Is a Sprinter from "Way

Why not fix a championship stake at $1,000? If a champion will not accept a challenge for this amount let him forfeit the championship. This would give rising stars n the pugilistic arens a chance. As matters are now, unless a pugilist is comparatively rich he cannot fight a man who has won laurels and money. The champions put themselves out of reach by exacting an enormous stake. By this means they form a sort of Trust among themselves. barring out, perhaps, many a better man than themselves. Give the young talent a than themselves. Give the young talent a show. The high stake regime is an innovation of recent years. Most of the world's great puglistic battles have been fought for $1,000 stakes. The following are a few of the fights that have occurred for $1,000 stakes: Heenan vs. Savers; Sayers vs. The Tipton Slasher; Arthur Chambers vs. John H. Clarke; John MoGlade vs. Sam Collins; Collier vs. Barney Aaron; Collier vs. Billy Kelly; Billy Edwards vs. Collier, on three occasions; Edwards vs. Chambers; Edwards vs. Tim Collins. The last regular battle for the light-weight championship before the system of Queensberry rules and glove business came into vogue was between Johnny Clarke and Arthur Chambers, both of Philadelphia, and was for $1,000.

of Philadelphia, and was for $1,000. Opinions differ as to the showing of Mat-thew J. McCarthy, or Welch, Holsko's "unknown," Saturday night, when he was pitted against the Harlem Spider. Some of those present at the contest thought the "unknown" showed up in fine form, and that he would give "Cal" a close call. Others say they don't finish he stands a ghost of a show. The 5th of April will prove posi-tively which is the better of the two Mc-Carthys.

Jack Dempsey says he won't fight Reagan for the small stakes proposed by the latter. Besides, he don't want to fight Johnny any-how, he declares, since he has already 'licked him out of his boots." If the $1,000 championship stake rule were adopted Johnny might have an opportunity to show how much be has improved since his last bout with the Nonpareil.

The man Dempsey is lying for is Charley Mitchell. It is safe to say Jack would jump at a chance to get a whack at Chawley in the ring for a stake of $10—but on this side of

. . .

Naphtha launches are to be the "fad" this season. They are fast, reliable and economical. Many yacht owners will have these launches in commission in addition to their regular yachts. A naphtha launch race for a handsome medal would be an interesting

The rightcous storm of indignation aroused by the inhumanity of the Hempsteed Coursing Club in persisting in its "sport" of chasing terror-stricken rabbits with dogs has not yet subsided. Why don't the Club substitute rats for rabbits? The rodents would afford the livelier "sport." and their destruction would be a benefit to the community. Besides they are much games than poor, scared, timid rabbits.

The recent fierce glove contest between Ben

The recent fierce glove contest between Ben Bailey and Jake Carter proves that colored fighters are sometimes possessed of real grit and "sand." Most negro pugilists are done for if punished to any extent. Funishment knocks the heart out of them. For this reason many people, while admitting Peto Jackson's skill as a boxer, will back Cardiff in the coming mill between the two. They think that if Cardiff hurts Jackson to any extent the darky will be done for.

Jack McAuliffe leads an exemplary life in private. He fights, he says, merely to make money. Like Buck Fanshaw, Jack doesn't "shake his mother," but has established a comfortable home for her and his sister. His house is cosy, cheerful and well furnished, and the youth'ul champion sees to it that nothing conducive to the happiness of the family shall be lacking.

J. H. Dodds, of New Haven, has an eye to business. He wants John L. Sullivan to referee a foot-race to come off in that city between himself and Dick Phillips, of New York. He has written a letter to John asking his terms. As an extra inducement he cunningly adds that John may, if he chooses, ride in the same carriage as Phillips and himself in the grand triumphal procession which is to parade the day of the race. A brass band will precede the vehicle containing the two doughty Mercurys.

Is Sailor Brown a Japanese? If not why does he send telegrams written in this upside-down style of phraseology:

A DEADHEAD'S RHYMING REQUEST FOR A DEADHEAD'S RHYM

Now, then, Messrs. Sherrill, Baker, Brooks, and all of you other sprinters who think you can cover 100 yards in pretty quick time, look to your laurels. Here is a sprinter, named Henry M. Pollard, who writes from Trinidad, and sends along voueliers signed by responsible parties, that he has run 100 yards in eight reconds. What? You don't believe it? Well, neither do some other folks. But Mr. Richard K. Fox has written the phenomenon to come hitherward immediately, and then every one can see for himself. Mr. Fox has, further, offered him $5.000 if he can do what he says. May the great Trinidadder have a quick voyage! great Trinidadder have a quick voyage!

Dennis Butler, the brother-in-law of the "only" Mike Donovan, of the New York Athletic Club, has received a flattering offer from the Southern Athletic Club, of New Orleans, to act as instructor in boxing. He has accepted the offer.

Our American cricketers hold a good many conventions and give the very finest recep-tions. If they could only play cricket as well as they can dance they might easily wrest championship honors from the English teams which periodically lacerate our feelings by unting our less cricket teams way in the outting our best cricket teams way in the soup. Come, give us a cricket team to be

F. W. Hofele renews his offer to G. Zimmerman, who won the shooting prize at the German Hospital Fair, to shoot a five-hour match at a 200 or 500 yard range at either Morrisania or Creedmoor, the loser to pay for a champagne dinner to twenty-five persons

Thirty prominent deaf mutes assembled in St. Ann's Church, West Eighteenth street, Saturday ovening to select a delegate for the International Congress to be held in Paris from July 10 to 18 in memory of Abbe de l'Epée, the inventor of the single-hand alphabet. E. A. Hodgson of the single-nami alphabet. E.A. Hodgson. of the Draf-Mutes' Journal, was selected. It was arranged to have a picuic or an excursion, the profit of which will go to the delegate for passage and hotel expenses. Thomas F. Fox. J. F. O'Brien. George S. Porter. J. F. J. Tresch, Jacob Alexander, Charles Bothner, Samuel Frankenheim, C. Pfeiffer, fr., J. Whalen, John Lloyd and Albert Ballin were appointed a Committee of Arrangements.

Answers to Correspondents.

J. L.—Tina Weiss was returned to her parents J. H. S. -No.

G. Bentfoce, -Lake George, the Catekills or Seneca Lake. B. Morris.—Oregon was admitted as a State Feb. 12, 1850.

J. R.—The trade schools, First avenue and Sixty-fourth street.

Letter-Carrier.—The Fidelity and Casualty Insurance Company, 216 Broadway. G. H. Lewis. —A Bible printed in Holland in 1614 is probably worth from five to ten cents, according to its weight.

Schoolyt.1.—Alaska was bought from Russia by the United States in 1867 for $7,200,000 and became a Territory May 17, 1884. David Vincent.—You caunot compel the land-lord to give you a receipt, and are not free from the obligation of paying your rent because he

M. Crowley and Yankee.—It is impossible for us to advise you without knowing the full details. Write to the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C. J. B. V.—There were no Confederate silver dollars coined. Confederate half dollars are exceedingly rare, and are quoted as high as $1,000 or $1,500. Apply to David Prosky, $53 Broadway.

I. Be Mack.—A patent will cost you $70, and applications must be made in writing to the Commissioner of Patents, Washington. You had better secure the services of a lawyer. For further information see page 76 of The World Almanac.

Almanac.

W. S.—''Paper" would have been corrected by the desired even if different qualities had been desired. "Papers" might be right in trade phraseology when more than one kind is desired, but gram atically it is doubtful if it could be thus used. Consequently both E. and S. may be right and wrong.

From Colorado.

PLATTEVILLE, Weld County, Col., Oct. 21, 1887. FLEMING BROS.
DEAR SINS: I consider Dr. C. McLanz's Criz

BHATED LIVER PILLS to be a splendid article for bilious ness, headache, fever and debility. They strengthen and tone the system perfectly. We have used them in our family for thirty years and can recommend them.

WM. D. Ross. MARGARET ROSS.

In case of sick headache, biliousness, torpid liver, dyspepsia and costiveness, Dr. C. McLane's Cerr BRATED LIVER PILLS never fail to give relief -for both sexes and all ages, they are compounded with regard to even the most delicate constitution. Sold by all drug gists. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by Florning Broa. Pittsburg, Pa. Look out for an imitation made in St. Louis which is often palmed off on innocent spec following: Dear Colonel, will you me de-light, de-light, By letting me have a box to-night, quest," and beside it was the instructive legend, "Con expressione." The fiend got the box. Col. McCaull said he thought the request was so dainty that it ought not to be overlooked. It was infinitely preferable to the stereotyped demand: "I'm a member of the perfesh. Can I get in to see the show to-

Still another troupe of unfortunate playpeople cast upon the cold, cold city. Twelve weeks ago E. A. McDowell took out a company of ambitious young people to play 'Mr. Barnes of New York" through Canada. Mr. McDowell acquired the Canadian rights to Mr. Gunther's play from Frank Sanger, and the trumpets sounded and the cymbals clashed when he acquired them. The other day Mr. Sanger sent his Mr. Baker to collect the royalties. Mr. Baker returned with the entire company. The members of the organization, it is said, received salaries for one week and a half out of the twelve.

The cancellation of all Mary Anderson's The cancellation of all Mary Anderson's dates will cause many a managerial heart to throb in auguish. Manager Hayman, of Sau Francisco, had rented the 'arge Grand Opera-House in that city, for a number of weeks in order that Miss Anderson might appear there. He was notified on Saturday night that she would not appear. Last year Mr. Hayman rented the San Francisco Grand Opera-House for the appearance of little Josef Hofmann, and went to San Francisco to see the engagement through. Little Hofmann never appeared, however. Mr. Hayman ought to have a very serious grudge against nervous prostration.

E. H. Sothern, who had reckoned upon pitting himself against Miss Anderson in Frisco, will now have the field to himself.

Bob Hilliard has signed the contract by which he is to appear for thirty weeks next season as Miss Helen Dauvray-Ward's leading man. This The Evenene Would foreshadowed recently. Mr. Hilliard is to play the part in 'One of Our Girls," which was 'created' by E. H. Sothern, and is to 'recreate' Mr. Wallack's famous impersonation of Preserving A Scrange Pages 19. of Prosper in "A Scrap of Paper."

BRONCHITIS Throat Affection

SCOTT'S EMULSION

PALATABLE AS MILK. Ask for Scott's Emulsion, and let no ex-planation or solicitation induce you to accept

Col. John A. McCaull has long been known as an energetic leader of the anti-deadhead agitation. All the persua sive wiles and wary fascination of the ingenuous applicant for free seats are lost upon him. It is very seldom that anybody ever gets the better of the Colonel. He has just received a letter, however, which appears to have hit him in a vulnerable spot. The letter contained several bars of neatly written and rather pretty music, undernoath which was written the

It's an ill wind, et cetera.

A story has been going the rounds that Robert Grau at one time travelled from town

CONSUMPTION | COUGH OR COLD

SCROFULA | Wasting of Flesh

Or any Discase where the Throat and Lungs are Inflamed, Lack of Strength or Nervo Bower, you can be Believed and Cured by

PURE COD LIVER OIL

With Hypophosphites.

Sold by all Druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists N. Y.

Box for to-night, to-night, box-to-night? This effusion was headed "Love's Re-

Ely's Cream Baim

Extracting, 25c., with GAS, 50c. Sets 85, 81 and $10. Soft films, 50c. of gold filing, $1 up. 203 GTH AVE., 31 D DOGE BELOW 14TH

PEERLESS DYES Are the BEST.

Devin Post's Birthday.

Devin Post, No. 8, will celebrate its third birthday on Tuesday evening, at their rooms,

619 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. A dinner will be served and appropriate toasts responded to.

Coming Events.

John J. Lynch Association annual reception, Wendel's Assembly Rooms, March 25.

Young Men's Democratic Club, regular meet-ing, Hoffman House, March 18.

James A. Garrield Temple, No. 8, annual en-tertainment, Grand Opera-House Hall, March

Independent Walhalla Boat Club annual re-ception, Walhalla Hall, Orchard street, March

Annual Purim reception, Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews, Thursday, March 21, and Sun-day, March 24.

CATARRH Cold in Head

All the arrangements regarding Mr. Dixey's appearance at the Standard in "Faust" have been killed by the new contract between Duff and Edwards, by which "Faust up to Date," with the new Gaiety company, will be brought over next season. They will probably settle Dixey's chances of doing "Faust" in New York.

m New York.

AMUSEMENTS.

CTAR TREATRE. COQUELIN FAREWELL
One week, commencing Manday, March 25.
FAREWELL TO AMERICA OF M. COQUELIN.
Monday-FIGARO Tuesday-LE JUIF POLON AIS.
Wednesday-SURPRINES DU DIVORCE. ThursdayPERRICHION. Friday-Benefit of M. Coquelin, JEA.
DACIFR, and in conjunction with Agnes Booth, THE SULENT SYSTEM (in English). Salurday Matines, LIL
JUIF POLONAIS. Saturday Evening—M. PORIER
JUIF POLONAIS. Saturday Evening—M. PORIER
Subscription Sale commences Monday, 18th; closes

A MRERG THEATRE, Irving place and 15th st. To-dropsy. Tuesday, benefit to Max Lube, Our Doctor. Wednesday, by request, Junkermann in Inspector Breesig. Thurs and every following evening, Old Jack. 19TH ST. BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. SUNDAY.

DOCKSTADER'S. STH WEEK. KELLAR.

"She arose greatly agitated. in Paris, where he was living at the time, with | view."

"'Not that, Andre-not that; anything but | the fatal result I have described. When the that. I did your will before, but spare her. girl heard of her seducer's confession, the a contemptuous shrag of his shoulders; For the love of God spare her.' She held up knowledge of her guilt (for be it understood her hands supplicatingly. Then, after a she was absolutely unconscious of the part pause, she continued: 'Must it be? Must it she had played) caused her to become bopebe? Has not enough blood already been lessly insane. Massinet escaped the guillotine

THE ARREST OF ANDRE MASSINET.

who were witnesses of this strange perform-

Worth's Museum

ALL NEW FEATURES THIS WEEK. GUATERIALIAN INDIAN BAND.

Kii Kii and Queto walk and dance on broken gle ody and wife, remarkable pistol shets. The Ind Parf. Ajorb, the Antomatic Chees Player. La Ioward, Albino, The Hairless Woman, Leon, duden Samson, Mrs. O'Brien, the Itali Giantess. ON THE STAGE.

Bryant & Holmes Specialty Co., including Christy & Pearl, Dave Reed and tamily, Gust Sifford, Tülie Frank, Wesley B. Norris, Prof. Carlisle and dogs, Mollie Thompson, Fred M. Winans, Jennie Goodman. STAGE SHOWS HOURLY. SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY.

PROCTOR'S 23D ST. THEATRE, GRAAN John T. Sullivan was delighted to hear of his ex-employer's (Mansfield) success in London with "Richard III." Mr. Sullivan said for two weeks before the production the Gloce Theatre was closed and a till dross rehearsal given every night. Among the supers were a number of Life Guards, who were drilled every morning for the last six weeks. Mr. Mansfield made a great many changes in the stage of the Globe. Theatrical people uptown yesterday said that in "Richard III." he had a "winner." ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF AND SAFE. NEIL BURCESS

COUNTY FAIR EVERY NIGHT & SATIKDAY MATINEE.

No reason why it should not run for years. An immense success."—N. Y. Herald.

"Pricterial from beginning to and, A success."—World, A distinct bit."—Morning Journal.

"Had crowned its success, and the new theatre had made its dedication a triumph."—N. Y. Sun.

"Will have a profitable career, "Tribune.

"Will have a profitable career, "Tribune.

"Unit have a profitable career, "Tribune.

"Will have a profitable career, "Tribune.

"Never seen snything more smusing."—Eve. World.

Capital entertainment, worth seeing. "—Mail and Ex.

Healthy in tous, decidedly entertaining."—Con. Ad.

"Realthy in tous, decidedly entertaining."—Con. Ad.

"Realthy in tous, decidedly entertaining."—Con ad.

"PRICE", 25c., Adv. Tribune.

"PRICE", 25c., Adv. Tribune.

"PRICE", 25c., Adv. Tribune.

"Theatre parties forming in or out of town can now secure seats two weeks in advance by mail, telegraph or teimphone. (Tel. No. 038, 21st.)

The latest contribution to theatrical publications is Dealop's Register, a prettily printed sheet in which the names of the leading ladies, leads, heavies, character actresses, old women, juvenites, leading soubrettes, singing soubrettes, soubrettes, hurlesques, light comedy people, leading men, old men, ingenues, child actors and business managers who are disengaged appear. This paper is not meant to hurt the dramatic agents; on the contrary, it ought to help them. In union there is strength.

DORIS'S MUSEUM. WEEK COM. MON., MARCH 18, FAT WOMEN CONVENTION.

T. Henry French left for San Francisco vesterday to join his "Little Lord Faunt-leroy" company, who appear March 25 for four weeks. John R. Rodgers is going to make a very extensive production of "My Brother's Sister" at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. He intends that his Minnie shall appear in great shape on Broadway. This is where all good stars love to appear, even if they have acted before the crowned heads of Europe. (ALBOT & WEAVER'S MINSTRELS

SACRED SUNDAY CONCERT.
GRAND SOLVENIR DAY, FRIDAY.
dmission 10 cents. Reserved seats 5 cents extra BUOUTHEATRE WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

A MIDNIGHT BELL
"The Old Homestead" and "The Henrietta" roll into one, Sears can be secured two weeks in advance 14 TH ST. THEATRE, COR. GTH AVE MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY KATHERINE THING AND JAMES A. HERNE'S DRIFTING APART.

MARCH 25-THE PAYMASTER.

STARTHEATRE BROADWAY AND 13TH ST.
Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.
RICE'S BEAUTIFUL EVANGELINE,
To-night, 5,000th Performance,
March 25—COQUELIN FAREWELL. LYCEUM THEATER, ATH AVE and 23D ST.
THIS MONDAY, EVENING AT 8 15 RDOU.
THE NARQLINE, By VICTORIN, SARDOU.
Next WEDNERDAY and PRIDAY at 2 30, the Greek play, ELECTRA.

Greek play, ELECTIA.

CTANDARD THEATRE.

Stury Evening at S. Saturday Matines at 2.

NECLIE FARREN, FRED LESSIES and the LONDON GALER SAMERALDA.

March 25—Boston Howard Athenburn Specialty Co.

March 25—Boston Howard Athenbum Specialty Co.

ACADEMY

WED'Y AND SATY 2.

THE OLD

ACHORITHM SMERALDA.

DENMAN THOMPSON.

HOMESTEAD. BROADWAY THEATP A. MAI Wed end Sat 2 P Broadway, cor. 43 d at ... EVENINGS AT LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY. ADMISSION 50c. H. B. JACOBS, THIRD AVENUE THEATRE.

"HOODMAN BLIND." MARCH 23, PEUR'S BAD BOY.

H. R. JACOBS' CHALLA THEATRE.
OLD ROWERY THEATRE.
Matiners, MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.
MARCH 25, MARTIN HAYDEN IN "BOY HERO." GRAND MUSEUM, THEATRE AND MENAGERIE,
THE CALLY 340-347 GRAND IN THE MILLIFERE SEWING CONTEST. BUTTERE GRANDS OF CURIOUS TEST Admission, 10 CKNTS.

NIBLO'S. Reserved Seats Orches. 50c.

A DARK SECRET.
MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.

MINER'S PEOPLES' THEATRE.

Stowaway.

WINDSORTHEATRE, BOWERY, NEAR CANAL. Week commencing Monday, March 18, EVERY H. C. KENNEDY'S MATINEES EVENING Grand Molodrema, Wednesday AT S. LIGHTS AND SHADOWS & Saturday. THEATRE COMIQUE, 125th st., bet. 3d & Lex. aves.
MASTELL, in MONBARS.
with all the 5th Ave. Theatre some 7 and costumes.
A GREAT PRODUCTION GUARANTEED.
Next week. Mrs. James B. Potter. Mattines Saturday.

"Well," said the mad doctor when the

"A good deal." was the quiet reply.

5TH AVE. THEATRE.

EUGENE TOMPKINS..... Lessee and Manager venings at S. Matinee Saturday at S. Evenings at 8. "A WONDERFUL TRIUMPH," MR. N. C.

AS SILAS R. WOOLGOTT. Of Crass Valley, Cal., U. S. A.,

COLD 'PUBLIC DELIGHTED."

Bronson How

"PRESS UNANIMOUS." Only Goodwin Matinee Saturday. Regular Prices, 25c., 50c., $1.00, $1.50. Seats Secured for any performance.

CRAND OPERA-HOUSE.
CRAND ST. PATRICK'S DAY MATINES TO DAY.
W. J. SCANLAN, IRISH MINSTREL.
Matines. Next Week, Rice's Corsair. Next Sunday, Rome, the City of the Clesars and the Poper, by Prof. Cromwell. PALMER'S THEATRE, BWAY AND 30TH ST.

BOCCACCIO COMPANY, BOCCACCIO

Evenings at 8. Saturday Matines at 2.

MADISON SQUARE THEATRE, A. M. PALMER Sele Manager. (4TH | CAPTAIN SWIFT, Superior to Jin, the MONTH, A Great Success. — World, Jan. 28 Fennan, THURE, 2 P. M., new comedy, HONOR BRIGHT, BROADWAY AND 39TH ST. NADJY. SEVENINGS AT SROAT AT 1 Admission ôde Beats reserved 2 weeks in advance.

TONY PASTOR'S NEW 14TH ST. THEATRE.
SELECTED SPECIALTIES,
HARRY KENNEDY, ROSS & FER
TON JOHN HART SAGGIE CLINE
MATINEES TUESDAY & FRIDAY. FERNANDO'S DANCING ACADEMY, 182 E SET

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS.

TOBOGGANING. ROLLER-BEATING, HOLLER-BEATING.

Every evening, greatest combination amnoment in Brooklyn. Fancy skating and racing. Admission: Gents, 25c.: ladies, 10c. Hall let at reasonable rates. A. F. READ, Manager. H. R. JACOBS' BROOKLYN THEATRE, Cor. Washington and Johnson sts. Matinees Monday, J. B. POLK Matinees, Evening Wednesday, J. B. POLK 20c. and 20c. and 20c. and 20c. and 20c.

LEE AVE. ACADEMY OF MUSIC, Brooklyn, E. D. NEXT WEEK, SATURDAY MATTINES ONLY, RICHARD STAHL'S COMIC OPERA,

SAID PASHA.

AMPHION ACADEMY Knowles & Morris, Every Evening Wednesday and Saturday Matingo. Mrs. Potter in "Antheny and Cleopatra." GRAND OPERA-HOUSE Knowles & Morris THE FAIRY'S WELL.

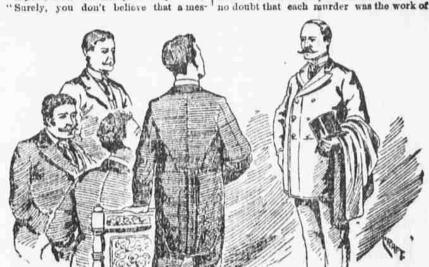

OL SINN'S PARK THEATRE. THIS WEEK, MATTINEE SATURDAY

FENZ, ALOIS Florence Miller, Layma Sisters, Harry Melville, CARL, Schult F, Dierks, Wm. and Kirchner's Casino Orchestra TIPPS CASINO THIS WEEK death of her husband, had been murdered in had been committed between 12 r. m. and 6 further operations and impressed upon her both her father and mother for the sake of murder, and the diverse social positions of their wealth. He willed her to do this while the unfortunate victims lends color to my > you forget that to all appearances the same dagger was used in each case," " To all appearances, yes," said the author; but appearances are defusive. Is it beyond

"That cannot be," replied the doctor, with question that the same dagger was used?" 'Quite !" The speaker was Dr. Harvey, speaker had finished, "what has that got to a famous young analyst, who, byithe bye, was engaged to Miss Hardcastle. "I have seen the bodies of all the victims, and I have not help thinking that a solution of the mys. and disprove my theory that the murders "That is absurd," was the impolite rejoinder. "What motive could a mesmerizer have in causing such murders to be com-covered ?" "You mistake me. I did not say that all the murders were the work of one band. The

At this moment a tall, commanding figure joined the group. ' My dear Mansfield, when did you come back ?" eried Dr. Harvey, warmly shaking him by the hand. "You of all men are the

FOUNDED ON WHITECHAPEL'S and Expressing the Author's Theory of that Series of Mysteries.

STUART CUMBERLAND, "Thought - Reader to Europe's Crowned Heads,"

Occultist and Psychologist.

STNOPSIE OF OPENING INSTALMENTS. Miss Evelyn Hardonstle's twenty-first birthday is at hand. She is visited at her father's London manelon by at cover, who is horror-stricken at the occuliar resemblance between the expression of her face and that of the itest victim in a terrible series of tragedies that is occiting all London. All classes of society are panie-stricken, liss Hardonstle haughs at his laver's hara. Meanwhile, the London papers are full of the details of the mystrous tragedies. The Charton Cross Guardet especially arradgus the police for inefficiency. It publishes a list the nine invertions murders, concluding with an account of that of Miss Geraldine Ulverstone, the dear land of Miss Hardonstle. Specialation is rife as to who the murderous fiend or fines on the . The Commissioner Police offers a pardon to any accomplice not actually implicated in the crimes who will furnish information, everal members of the Globs Trotters' Club are discussing the sflair, and one of them, a prominent young author, reminded of an occurrence in Paris some years before. The members draw near to hear the story,

CHAPTER IV. AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF PARISIAN TRAOEDIES RESULTING FROM HYPNOTIC INFLUENCES, CITED AS A PARALLEL TO THE LONDON MYSTERIES.

The affair to which I refer," resumed the | wife (who was absent from home at the time) distinguished author, addressing the interest- and an only daughter, who was inconsolable ing group at the Globe Trotters' Club, at her father's loss. Every effort was made briefly was as follows: so far as could be discovered, not an enemy doubt. in the world, and as nothing in the house had on the part of the police to trace the mur-"A rich banker, living in a splendid derer, but nothing came of it. The whole of chateau at Verantiles, was one morning found | the servants were arrested and closely examdead in his bed with his throat cut. He had, | ined, but their innocence was proved beyond

"A month went by, when all Paris was starbeen disturbed, robbery was evidently not fled by the news that the widow, who had the object of the murder. The bankerhad a returned to the chateau on hearing of the precisely the same fashion. Again were the fastened, and the matter was on the point of | his plan. being forgotten when a famous mental scientist, deeply interested in the psychological aspects of crime, made a discovery which gave a solution to the mystery. While the cence of the domestics, were actively searching elsewhere for the criminal, the doctor contented himself with examining the daughter.

"To all appearance she was overwhelmed with grief at the death of her parents, so pleadingly. 'Oh, spare me this.' And she much so, in fact, that she was, through the fell upon her knees in a beseeching attitude. shock to her system, confined to her bed for some time afterwards. It was during her ill- of some one to spare her doing a deed which ness that the famous doctor was called in. she abborred. But this some one apparently and he had exceptional opportunities of did not heed her, for she finally arose with a watching her. The first thing he discovered was that she was highly hysterical, and the next thing that she was sensitive to so-called mesmeric influences. In order, during a fit

BHE OPENS THE BOX IN HEB TRANCE. of nervous depression, to quiet her he tried his hand at hypnotizing her, and with remarkable success. It was while in this hypnotized state that his suspicions were aroused, and when she had recovered her health he determined to try an experiment which would definitely decide whether his suspicions were well or ill founded.

"The murders, so far as could be judged

A. M. At midnight the doctor proceeded to that she had something else to do. servants arrested, with nothing being found | mesmerize the young girl in her own room. against them, and the police failed once more He was not long in getting her into a subjecto get any clue to the actual murderer. There tive state, and, when he had succeeded in was no one on whom suspicion could be this, he proceeded with the further stages of .. You have something to do, and you must do it, ' he said. "The girl shivered and stood irresolute for awhile. Then, moving towards a box condetectives, after being convinced of the inno- taining a portion of her wardrobe, she said : Your will, André, must be obeyed.' 'She opened the box, and from the bottom fetched a blood-stained razor. She looked at it with horror in her eyes.

" Must I, Andre? -must I? she said

For several moments she knelt thus praying look of utter dejection on her face. " ' It must be; it must be! (and she wrung her hands). O God, forgive me. "With this she wept. Then, drying her eyes and bracing herself together for a final effort, she staggered rather than walked out of the room. " She went direct to the room occupied by her father on the night of the murder, followed by the doctor and those who were witnesses of the experiment. She opened the door cautiously and entered the room. At the bedside she paused. Here her agitation was extreme, and she seemed on the point of turning and retracing her steps, when, as if mpelled by an irresistible inward force, she cept over the bed, muttering as she did so : It is his will, his will, and I must do it. God as if in the act of placing it upon a steeping person's mouth, and then, with the razer in low the pillow.

With this she reached out her left hand,

forgive me.'

water. Then she lay down.

shed? Why her life? Oh, take mine and by poisoning himself while in prison."

spare hers. * * . No. you will not release me from my vow? Mon Dieu! Mon Dieu!'wringing her hands. Then she added after a pause. 'As you wish so must I do.' She again left her room and this time proceeded to the chamber that had been occupied by her murdered mother, where she went through much the same action as before. "There was no doubt in the minds of those murderess, and that she had committed the murders while under the influence of mesmerism. But who was the mesmerizer? Inher right hand, she made sundry slashes be. | quiries were at once made, and the fact dis. | tery may be found in something of the kind," covered that the girl, while at Trouville, the " 'Now, André,' she said, gazing earnestly | Summer before, had formed an illicit interat the bed, 'your will is done.' Returning to course with a chevalier d'industrie, kind of her room she hid the razor in the box, poured | Prado, named André Massinet. He was arout some water and washed her hands, rested and after a while made a con- to have access to his various victims undisemptying the contents of the basin down a fession of his guilt. He explained how he cistern, which she swilled clean with fresh had established an influence over his victim. fession of his guilt. He explained how he and while in a mesmeric state he had im-"After a little while the doctor commenced | pressed upon her the necessity of killing | mesmerizer may have had a subject for each do with the present case ?"

merizer has made some one over whom he , the same hand, and that the same weapon ance that the your girl was the actual has established an influence commit the was used in each case." That settles it." said the author, somepresent murders ?" asked the doctor. at discomforted : " but still that fact does " Of course nothing is certain, but I can-> y have been committed by some one while under the influence of mesmerism." mitted? How is your mesmerized subject most likely to throw some light upon this terrible mystery."

(To be Concluded To-Morrow.)